OFFSHORE DECOMMISSIONING CONFERENCE

Jointly organised by  and

Exhibition Space Opportunities 2019

25 – 27 November 2019 | The Fairmont Hotel, St Andrews

The Conference

The 2019 conference, run jointly by Decom North Sea and OGUK, will take place from 25 – 27 November at the Fairmont Hotel, St Andrews.

The industry will spend around £15 billion over the next decade on decommissioning on the UKCS and is committed to delivering a safe, environmentally sound and cost-effective outcome. Globally, the decommissioning market is estimated to be worth over $80 billion over the next ten years and companies which show mastery of decommissioning in the UK will be well positioned to secure a share of the rapidly growing international market. (OGUK Decommissioning Insight Report 2018).

With these opportunities in mind, the 2019 conference will encompass several sessions focused on the latest decommissioning updates, trends and case studies. Details of the individual sessions and keynote presentations will be shared in due course.

The key objective of the conference is to bring a wide spectrum of oil and gas companies into one room; small supply chain companies, contractors and many of the large operators. Previous conferences have shown attendees to be actively involved and willing to contribute and discuss the challenges and opportunities associated with offshore oil and gas decommissioning in an open and engaging atmosphere.

Attending this annual event will allow delegates to:

- Update their knowledge and learn from industry leaders and key stakeholders
- Take part in an excellent business development and networking opportunity, engaging with 450+ industry professionals, including at the welcome reception and conference dinner

The Organisers

About Decom North Sea

Decom North Sea is the principal decommissioning membership organisation which connects capability with opportunity across the international oil and gas decommissioning industry. Our membership ranges from major international operators to single person companies. We believe that, by working together effectively, our members can secure business opportunities, while safely executing decommissioning activities and protecting the environment for future generations.

About OGUK

OGUK is the leading representative body for the UK offshore oil and gas industry. Our membership includes around 400 organisations with an interest in the UK's upstream oil and gas sector. As the champions of industry, we work on behalf of our members to inform understanding, engage on a range of key issues and promote our wider value in a changing energy landscape.

Decommissioning now accounts for almost 10% of the overall expenditure in the UKCS so it plays an important role in the wider oil and gas industry. From exploration to decommissioning and located across the length and breadth of the UK, the companies we serve are critical to providing security of energy supply, support hundreds of thousands of jobs and contribute billions to the economy. As part of the natural lifecycle of an oil and gas asset, its is important that decommissioning is seen in the broader context of the industry.
